1. The significance of improving college students' honesty level in college honesty education

1.1 The development of the times and the need for social harmony

In the actual construction of a harmonious society, integrity is very important. Due to the progress of the times and social development, the requirements for the moral standards of our people are reflected in the aspect of integrity. In this situation, strengthening the integrity education in colleges and universities is very important to improve the integrity and ability of college students. In the current integrity education, teachers should pay attention to the cultivation of the concept of honor and disgrace for college students, meet the needs of the development of the times, and pay attention to cultivating outstanding talents for our society. In the process of harmonious development of society, college students are an important subject, so colleges and universities should cultivate their cognition of honesty and moral quality.

1.2 The need to establish the correct three views

College life is a good time for college students, and it is also very important for them to establish accurate three views. In the process of honesty education in colleges and universities, when teachers explain honesty knowledge and skill levels to college students, they should minimize the impression of bad habits in the society, pay attention to the education of college students' honesty, and emphasize their professional skills and comprehensive quality. Cultivation allows college students to form accurate concepts, invest in specific learning activities, and improve the integrity of college students.

1.3 Promote the success of college students' careers

Integrity is the key to the development of college students. It is not only reflected in the usual learning activities, but also in interpersonal activities, and more importantly, in the future career planning of college students. With the development of the market economy, college students have realized that honesty is very important, it is the foundation of an individual's life, and the key to a healthy personality. Especially for college students who are about to enter the society, integrity is very important. College students must improve their interpersonal communication level, which is the key to college students' success in their careers.

2. Analysis of the reasons for the lack of integrity education in colleges and universities

2.1 The emphasis on honesty education needs to be improved

In the current process of honesty education in colleges and universities, teachers do not pay much attention to this aspect of educational activities. Because of the burden and pressure of further studies, more energy is reflected in the course learning activities. Although their academic performance has been improved, their level of integrity and moral cultivation are still lacking.

2.2 The method of honesty education is relatively single

In the teaching activities of honesty education in colleges and universities, teachers' educational methods and methods are relatively simple, and they will use indoctrination methods in honesty classroom activities. Relying on the increase of moral education courses or political courses to ensure the effect and quality of integrity education, but the lack of in-depth excavation and analysis of them has led to the need to improve the pertinence of integrity education. At the same time, when teaching, teachers will start from social needs and directly put forward actual requirements to college students. This phenomenon ignores the psychological and emotional analysis of college students, fails to explore and analyze problems from the perspective of college students, and ignores the guidance to college students. Therefore, in the process of honesty education in colleges and universities, teachers should continue to try to innovate and reform, but the effect is not obvious.

2.3 The influence of bad social ethos

For college students who are in colleges and universities, bad habits in society will have a bad influence on them. College students are in an important stage of gradual improvement and development of character and psychology, and their plasticity is relatively strong, and they are very easily affected by the social atmosphere or the surrounding environment. In the new era environment, there are more temptations in society. Due to the existence of bad temptations, it will have an impact on the formation of good integrity of college students. Based on this analysis, integrity education is not developed in a short time, nor can it be developed in a short time. Therefore, in the process of integrity education, teachers should persevere for a long time, so that you can get a certain degree of results.

It is necessary to start with campus culture and school-running philosophy, fully embody the principle of integrity, and incorporate the concept of integrity in specific integrity teaching activities. At the same time, colleges and universities should also organize speech activities related to integrity, so that college students can actively participate in such activities, improve their knowledge of integrity and concept of integrity, and promote the all-round development of college students.

3.2 Strengthen honesty promotion

At this stage, in order to improve the teaching quality and effectiveness of honesty education in colleges and universities, promotion and publicity in this area should be strengthened. For most college students, it is difficult to understand and master boring theoretical knowledge points, or to study carefully and fully. Therefore, in the process of honesty education, colleges and universities should strengthen the promotion of honesty to college students, not only in terms of theoretical knowledge, but when the university is living in the phenomenon of honesty, teachers should also encourage and affirm college students, so that college students can fully perceive the real life. Honesty incidents, establish the concept of honesty, and let honesty penetrate deeply into the psychology of college students. In the education and teaching activities of colleges and universities, the role of integrity education cannot be ignored. Through the efficient implementation of integrity education activities, college students can develop good behaviors and cultivate their moral cultivation and comprehensive quality. This is very important to the character quality of college students. Therefore, in the current process of college education, it is very important to strengthen the integrity education of college students.

3.3 Improve the integrity education system in colleges and universities

At this stage, the integrity education system in colleges and universities is not perfect, so it is necessary to complete and complete the system so that all links of the integrity education activities can be implemented. When setting up ideological and political courses, colleges and universities should realize the richness and diversity of educational content, and realize the dissemination of the idea of honesty. At the same time, integrity education can also be infiltrated into the teaching of other courses, allowing college students to understand the integrity performance of various industries from a different perspective. In the integrity education activities, teachers should also use the method of class meetings to allow college students to participate in the activities of the class meetings, or make full use of network technology to allow teachers to strengthen the integrity education of college students, allow both parties to strengthen good communication, and pay attention to the integrity of college students. Education is the key to the implementation of honesty education activities in colleges and universities, guiding them to establish an accurate concept of honesty, improving the awareness and level of honesty of college students, and in the future, allowing college students to better integrate into the society.

4. Conclusion

In summary, honesty is a moral quality that all individuals must strictly abide by, and it is also a basic criterion for respecting others and objective facts. In the environment of national quality education, integrity education is very important. For college students, strengthening integrity education can regulate the behavior and language of college students, and shape the healthy personality of college students. In recent years, with the rapid development of network technology, foreign culture has continuously impacted my country's excellent traditional culture, which has caused college students to face dishonesty, which will adversely affect their establishment of accurate three views, and be influenced by various fields of our society. It is necessary to improve the integrity awareness and ability of college students, let the integrity education enter the path of moralization and standardization, and ensure the sustainable development of college education.
