Abstract: Students' ideological and political education is a crucial part of the teaching work in higher vocational colleges. It has a direct impact on the overall level of teaching work and is related to the future study and development of students. Under the current situation, the socialist core values have been widely used in the ideological and political education of students in higher vocational colleges, which points out the direction for the ideological and political education work, but also puts forward specific requirements for the work. This paper studies the concrete methods of guiding the ideological and political education of students in higher vocational colleges with socialist core values, hoping to help vocational colleges optimize and adjust the follow-up ideological and political education work.

Keywords: Socialist core values; Higher vocational colleges; Ideological and political education

1. Introduction

At the present stage, more and more higher vocational colleges realize the importance and urgency of guiding the ideological and political education of students in higher vocational colleges with the socialist core values, and actively carry out practice in the work, the effect of ideological and political education has been effectively optimized. Under the new situation, the ideological and political education in higher vocational colleges is facing new challenges and difficulties, and the innovation of ideological and political education is urgent. In this paper, the author analyzes the significance of guiding the ideological and political education of students in higher vocational colleges with socialist core values, summarizes the challenges faced in the current work, and puts forward specific improvement strategies on this basis, aiming at helping higher vocational colleges to further improve the level of ideological and political education by relying on socialist core values.

2. Significance of Guiding Ideological and Political Education of Students in Higher Vocational Colleges With Socialist Core Values

2.1 To ensure the correctness of the direction of higher vocational colleges

Leading the ideological and political education of students in higher vocational colleges with the socialist core values can guarantee the correctness of the direction of running higher vocational colleges and is of great help to the development of higher vocational colleges. Socialist core values are the products of the development of The Times, which is closely connected with the need for the development of our times and is the concrete embodiment of our current condition. Therefore, higher vocational colleges should adhere to socialist core values as guidance in the ideological and political education work for students, make clear their role in personnel training, and ensure the correctness of the direction of education by this way. Provide a steady flow of talent resources for socialist construction^[1].

2.2 Help students to establish the correct three views

Under the new situation, students in higher vocational colleges have more abundant ways to obtain information. In this case, students are more susceptible to the influence of external factors, and ideological and political education is facing severe challenges. Students in higher vocational colleges are mainly aged between 18 and 22 years old. Students at this stage often have formed stable values, but they are still subjective and one-sided, and there are some ideological bias. Therefore, in the ideological and political education work of students,we should adhere to the socialist core values as the guidance,strengthen the influence on students'ideology.Correct students'wrong ideas in time to ensure that students can form the correct three views,so as to lay a solid foundation for students'future development.

2.3 Meet the requirements of socialist construction for personnel training

Contemporary young people bear the historical mission of realizing the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation,and the society has high expectations for it.Under such circumstances,guiding the ideological and political education of students in higher vocational colleges with socialist core values can meet the needs of socialist construction on talent training,and students in higher vocational colleges can improve their ideological consciousness through this way.Students have a stronger public concept,and they can actively participate in the socialist construction in the future,and can contribute their own strength to the development of the socialist cause.

3. Challenges Faced by Ideological and Political Education in Gigher Vocational Colleges

3.1 Challenges brought by the new situation

At present,our social transformation work is advancing steadily.In this case,cultural concept,interests pattern and social structure have all undergone some adjustments,and people's ideal belief,value orientation and way of life have also undergone some changes.In this context,the life and study of students in higher vocational colleges are bound to be affected.Students can have access to Western culture and concepts through online platforms,and are more susceptible to the influence of western hostile forces.In this case,some students will have wrong ideas and political beliefs,which increases the difficulty of ideological and political education to a certain extent.Higher vocational colleges are faced with severe challenges.

3.2 Challenges brought by students'own defects in higher vocational colleges

In the ideological and political education work,students are the main body,therefore,students themselves have an impact on the ideological and political education work can not be ignored.Under the influence of exam-oriented thought,students in higher vocational colleges often only learn theoretical knowledge under the guidance of teachers,students'self-control ability is poor,and thinking ability,innovation ability and practical ability are difficult to be effectively cultivated in the teaching process.Under such circumstances,the ideological and political education work is more difficult to carry out.In addition,students in higher vocational colleges often have poor learning ability and have not developed good learning habits.In the process of learning,they have a strong utilitarian mind and excessively pursue individuality.In this case,it is difficult for them to consciously resist bad information from the outside world,and their thoughts are very prone to deviation,which puts forward new problems for ideological and political education.

4. Strategies for Guiding Ideological and Political Education of Students in Higher Vocational Colleges with Socialist Core Values

4.1 Uphold the"Trinity"model and fully cover core socialist values

Higher vocational colleges guide students'ideological and political education with socialist core values,and should pay attention to adhering to the"trinity"mode,so as to ensure that socialist core values can give full play to its positive role.Students in higher vocational colleges spend a long time in school.Therefore,higher vocational colleges should clarify their own important role,require teachers to strengthen the management and guidance of students,and pay attention to the infiltration of socialist core values in the classroom teaching process,so as to enrich the classroom teaching content and improve the fun of teaching.And teachers should pay attention to organize some extracurricular activities,strengthen the guidance to students,so that students gradually understand the connotation of socialist core values in the activities.In the ideological and political education work of students in higher vocational colleges,the society should pay attention to play its own positive role,create a good social atmosphere,ensure the correctness of the social mainstream ideas,strengthen the influence on students'ideas.In addition,family also plays an important role in the formation of students'ideas.Family members should pay attention to regulating their own words and deeds,create a harmonious,healthy and positive family atmosphere,strengthen their influence on students unconsciously,and help them establish correct values^[2].

4.2 Take ideological and political education as a position to strengthen educational guidance for students

In practice,higher vocational colleges should take ideological and political education as a front,clarify the requirements of socialist core values,and strengthen the educational guidance to students.In the ideological and political education work of students,we should insist on the important position of the socialist core values,innovate the teaching mode,so as to improve the level of ideological and political education.For example,higher vocational colleges can organize debates,speech contests and other activities to enhance the interest of teaching,further deepen students'understanding of socialist core values,and ensure the effect of ideological and political education.

5. Conclusion

To sum up,guiding the ideological and political education of students in higher vocational colleges with the socialist core values can ensure the correctness of the orientation of higher vocational colleges,help students establish the correct three views,and meet the requirements of socialist construction on talent training.Under the new situation,higher vocational colleges should fully realize the problems existing in ideological and political education in the past,clarify the requirements of socialist core values,adhere to the"trinity"mode,strengthen the education and guidance of students,so as to ensure the application effect of socialist core values in ideological and political education,strengthen the influence on students'ideology,and cultivate high-quality skilled talents.To provide a reliable talent guarantee for the construction of socialism with Chinese characteristics.
